Continuing Education Grants

In order to help public libraries meet the continuing education requirement for the Public Library Assistance Grant, the State Library encourages staff in public or combined school public libraries to apply for continuing education grants, an ongoing grant program that reimburses the cost of training. Every library director must attend at least 6 hours of training once every two years for her library to remain eligible for the public library assistance grant.

Q: How do I find out about upcoming continuing education webinars, workshops and conferences?

A: The Library Development Training & Continuing Education calendar has information on upcoming continuing education events of particular interest to librarians. Access the calendar from the Library Development webpage or go directly to the calendar to view all of the offerings.

Q: Where can I find out about all of the regional, national and international library conferences coming up?

A: Douglas Hasty, has created the Library Conference Planner \(LCP\) an online one-stop resources for online/ virtual and regional, national and international library conference planning.

Q: I'm interested in taking online self-paced tutorials. Do you have any recommendations?

A: Visit the Professional Development Resources for Public Librarians an online resource guide designed to provide public librarians with access to CE and professional development resources.
